

COMPETITION ENTRY FORM

London Square is launching a short story competition with the theme 'There's no place like home'. In less than 500 words, tell us what 'home' means to you – think about the people in it, the rooms/outside spaces and your community.

Your entry can be typed or handwritten and should be on A4 landscape paper, unstapled, and include pictures.

NAME:.....

AGE:.....

ADDRESS:.....

SCHOOL:.....

PARENT / GUARDIAN EMAIL:.....

Write in box above

Draw in box above

First prize includes a Kindle E-Reader and four copies of your own published book. Runner up prizes include a book voucher worth £10 and £5. One copy of the winning book will also have a permanent home in Orpington Library for all to read!

The winning book will be presented at the London Square Orpington children's book fair celebrating International Literacy Day on Saturday 8th September at London Square Orpington, Broadwater Gardens, Orpington BR6 7UA. The event will include a reading, Q&A and book signing by children's author Jennifer Killick and food, drinks, games and plenty of books!

Entrants must be 4-11 years old

Send your entries to: London Square Book Competition, One York Road, Uxbridge UB8 1RN by Wednesday 15th August 2018

Large empty rectangular box for writing.

Write in box above

Large empty rectangular box for drawing.

Draw in box above

If you require additional paper, please download and print a second version of this entry form Londonsquare.co.uk/entryform

Entrants must be 4-11 years old. One entry per person and your work must be your own. You must have your parent/guardian's permission to enter. The winner will be notified by email on Monday 20th August. Collection of the Kindle E-Reader must be made within 30 days of notification.

