Woolwich

Undergoing a transformation with substantial ongoing investment, Woolwich, located on the banks of the River Thames, has a unique heritage. It is no surprise to locals that it has been announced as one of the best places to live for 2023 by The Sunday Times.

Woolwich was established as a Royal Dockyard by Henry VIII in early 1500s. The area flourished in late 1600s and in the 1700s as an important dockyard and the Royal Arsenal location.

Woolwich offers a unique mix of heritage and culture. The historic Royal Arsenal is a vibrant hub, featuring Woolwich Works, one of London's emerging destinations for live music, art, and comedy. The Greenwich Heritage Centre and the Firepower Museum showcase the area's military history. For shopping and dining, Woolwich Market and the newly developed Spray Street Quarter offer everything from artisan cafés to high-street brands.

REGENERATION – OPPORTUNITY AREA

Opportunity area

Woolwich is identified in the Mayor's London Plan as an Opportunity Area (OA) with potential for 5,000 new homes and 2,500 new jobs by 2041. The OA was designated in 2004 and is part of the Thames Estuary Growth Corridor. London opportunity areas are London's key locations with potential for large scale development, providing substantial new homes, transport infrastructure and jobs.

REGENERATION – WOOLWICH

The Elizabeth Line has accelerated regeneration and large-scale investment, serving as a catalyst for property development and transforming Woolwich into a major residential, cultural, and commercial hub. Development, which initially focused on the Thames and Woolwich town centre, is now expanding further south.

Woolwich town centre

Nearly £25 million of funding has been invested into Woolwich town centre, including town centre improvements, estate transformations, a new leisure centre, and enhanced public spaces.

Woolwich Works, a £45.6 million cultural hub that opened in September 2021, has transformed the historic Royal Arsenal buildings into an arts and entertainment venue. Dubbed “London’s best new culture spot” it features a 450-seat theatre, music venue, museum, and studios, earning the prestigious RIBA London and Conservation Awards 2023.

British Land bought a large portion of Woolwich town centre for £103m, to create a retail-focused development that blends housing, leisure, and independent businesses as well as introducing new public spaces.

Elevated fitness

Opening summer 2025, one of the UK’s largest urban leisure centres is coming to the heart of Woolwich. Spanning three stories, its state-of-the-arts facilities include fitness suites, multiple pools, community spaces, sports halls, squash courts and a health spa.

Wider regeneration

- TFL is redeveloping land around Woolwich Arsenal DLR station (TBC)
- The £400m Woolwich Exchange will deliver 801 homes, retail, a cinema, and green spaces
- £300m Woolwich Estates Regeneration
- £290m Lovell development will add 2,266 new homes

ELIZABETH LINE PREMIUM

The Elizabeth Line development at Woolwich has reduced journey times into many central London destinations and is acting as a catalyst for major regeneration, enhancements to transport infrastructure and a strong pipeline of new homes in the area.
